

Here is the programme for Open House for 2021.

25th February Kitty Fitton

Kitty is an observational comic and motivational person who speaks about life, families, emigrating too many times, and living with Parkinsons. Don't be put off by that – it's not contagious, but laughing is!

25th March Kathy Ombler

Meeting the hut wardens is an interesting part of walking the Great Walks. Kathy has spent a lifetime living near, exploring and writing about national parks. Past books include National Parks and other Wild Places of New Zealand, Where to Watch Birds in New Zealand and Walking Wellington. She also writes regularly for Wilderness magazine. In 2020 Kathy edited The Last Front Line, written by one of the builders of our newest Great Walk the Paparoa Track, built in memory of the men lost in the Pike River Mine.

22nd April Paul Kitteridge & Mary Lambert

Paul Kitteridge, Baritone, has taken a number of roles in amateur opera and musicals, as well as presenting radio recitals. In later life he belonged to the Wellington City Opera Chorus and various choirs and entertained in retirement homes.

Mary Lambert, Lyric Soprano, began singing lessons with Geoffrey Delamour. He would take her with others to sing at senior citizens gatherings and retirement homes - which she is still doing! Later she studied under Heather Taylor and Emily Mair and sang with Bel Canto and in Gilbert and Sullivan Musicals and now sings with the Wadestown Singers.

27th May Bee Dawson

“God, Guns and Gardening” - lovely images and lively tales.

24th June Queen Margaret College – Choral

22nd July Rosie White

Rosie White has an Applied Art Degree, and a Post Graduate Diploma in Design.

She will explain how hope, activism and stitching have come together in her practice as an artist.
